BLOUSES
DESIGNED BY LIBERTY & CO

Extract from notice in "THE QUEEN,"

March 4th, 1916:

"Messrs. Liberty are offering an array of attractive gowns and costumes, effected in their own characteristic and artistic manner. One never ceases to marvel how these authorities continue to assimilate the vogues of the moment, and then evolve designs that are absolutely exclusive, and with that element of difference that at once hall-marks them as Liberty."

LIBERTY'S BRITISH-MADE DRESS FABRICS

Liberty & Co. have the pleasure to state that, notwithstanding the present conditions of manufacture, they can supply at once a selection of all their fabrics (especially their famous silks, silk velvets and velveteens).

This fortunate position is due to the fact that for many years past their specialities have been produced in England.

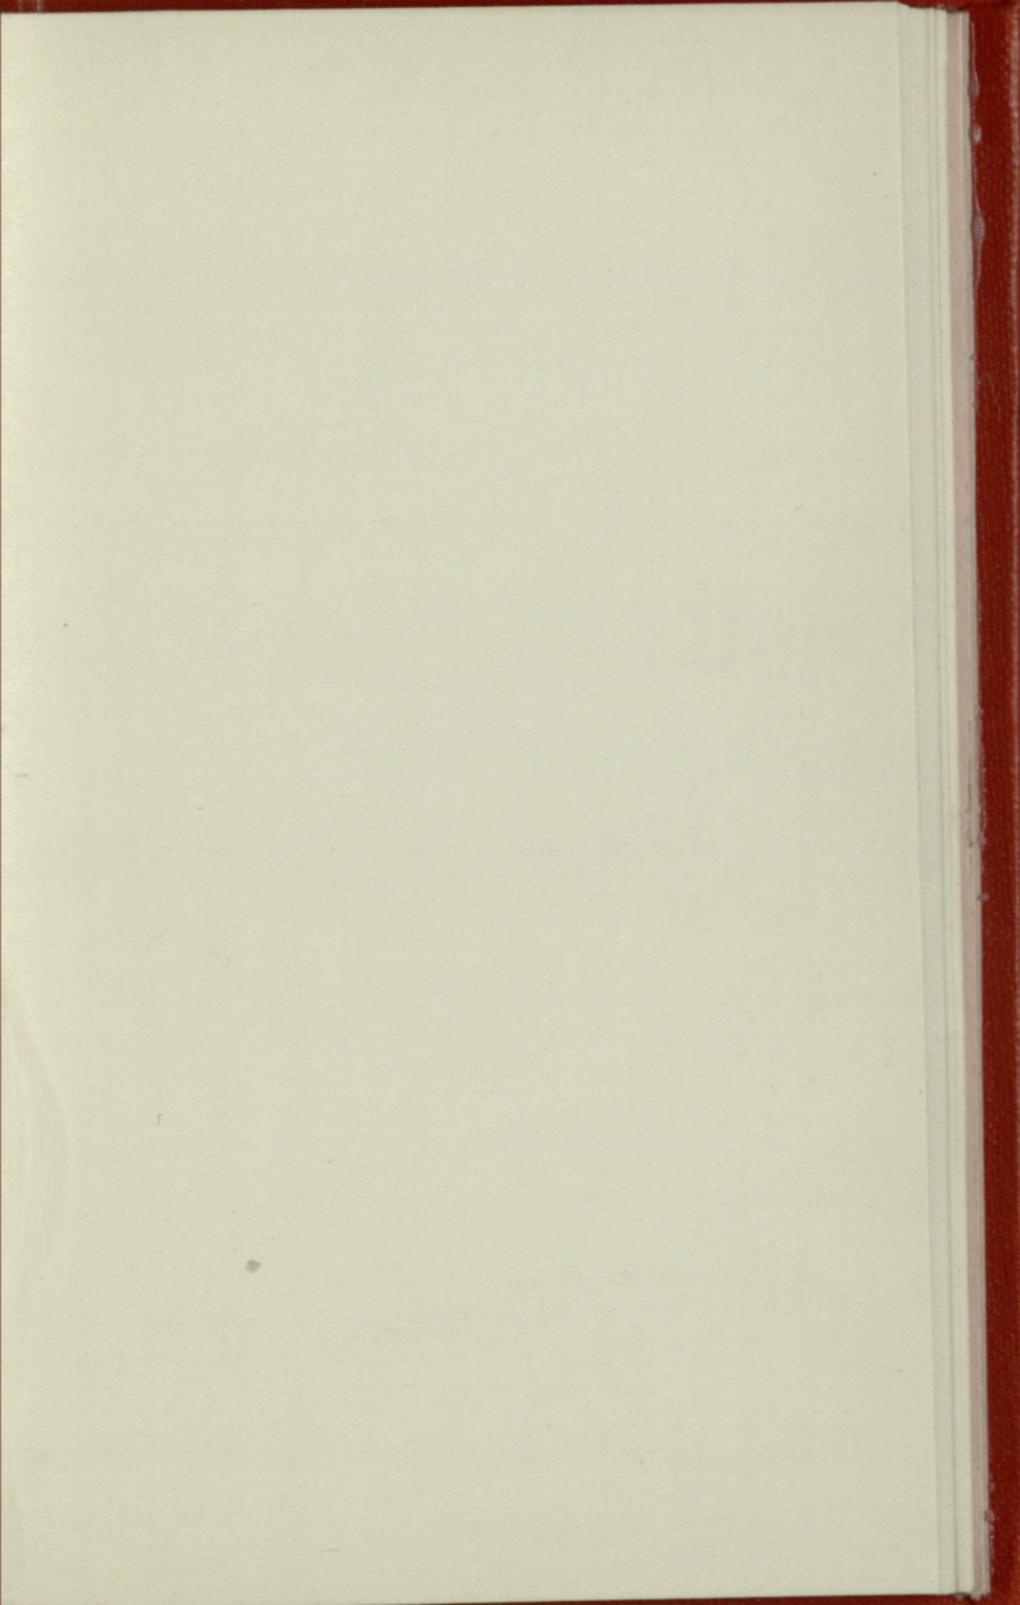

Liberty's Print Works at Merton Abbey enable them to be absolutely independent of the Alsatian and German Printers.

Patterns sent on request.
